This is UNEVALUATED Information

25X1

1. On 7 December 1953, 40 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia engaged in field-wire laying in the area between the narrow-gauge railroad line and the north camp at the Altengrabow troop training grounds. 25X1
2. Between 5 and 10 December, Colonel Baranov (fnu), polit officer of Unit Polegon, at the training grounds.
3. An NCO stated that, between 30 November and 5 December, seven Soviet families arrived at Altengrabow. Five of these families were quartered in the camp, while 2 families of officers of the komendatura occupied apartments outside the camp. More families were expected to arrive soon.

Although this information fails to definitely confirm in Altengrabow the 44th Army Arty Brig and the 10th How Arty Brig permanently stationed there, the two brigades can be carried in their known quarters until early December. 25X1
